

WILLIMANTIC

Norwich Bulletin, Willimantic Office,
25 Church street, Telephone 195.

Judging by indications, Congressman Richard P. Freeman of New London will meet with some opposition when he comes up for re-nomination today (Saturday) at the convention of the republicans of the Second district. Early in the month it was supposed that Congressman Freeman would have practically no opposition at this convention but when the voting begins today each county will have its own candidate. New London county backing Congressman Freeman of New London; Windham county, putting forward Byron D. Bugbee of Putnam; Tolland county presenting ex-Senator Myron Keeney of Somers; while Middlesex will line up for Senator Edward W. Hazen of Haddam. The records of these four candidates show each well fitted for the honor each hopes to win, so that a nomination this noon at the convention means virtually an election.

Congressman Freeman from the start made it known that he desired re-nomination and he has been busy during the past weeks visiting the various cities and towns in the district to see how his supporters are lining up. New London county delegates will come to the convention solid for their candidate and it is claimed that Tolland county will give Congressman Freeman some support, although ex-Senator Keeney of Somers will have supporters from that county.

Mr. Bugbee has the assurance that voters of Windham will be with him and circulars sent out recently have been signed by delegates from many towns in this county giving evidence that Bugbee will have strong support from Windham county.

Senator Hazen of Haddam is assured some fifty votes from his followers, according to statements made during the past week.

Pre-nomination talk Friday has it that Mr. Bugbee of Putnam stands the best chance for nomination as in case of a deadlock between the four candidates delegates from Windham and Tolland will pool their votes and with the aid of votes they hope to win from the other counties, they will be able to push their candidate through. Earlier in the week a prominent republican in a statement to a Bulletin reporter claimed that it would be Freeman on the first ballot. Another man was of the opinion that Congressman Freeman must win on the first ballot or he will not stand a chance against the candidates from Windham county. At any rate, it is stated that from the time Charles A. Gates, chairman of the republican second congressional district committee, calls the session to order at 11:45 (standard time), the delegates will not find time dragging on their hands.

All arrangements have been completed for a big republican rally, to be held on Tuesday evening, Sept. 28 at 8 o'clock in the town hall. The republicans have secured Senator Medill McCormick of Illinois and Miss Lucy Price, of New York, for the speakers. The November elections are now but five weeks away and local republicans intend to keep things booming from now until Senator Warren G. Harding has been elected as president of the United States. Governor Calvin Coolidge, vice president, and all other republican candidates, swept into office by a big majority. Word of the rally has been sent to surrounding towns and Scotland, Hampton, Coventry, Canterbury, Franklin, Lebanon, Columbia and Hebron republicans have stated their intentions of attending the meeting. Members of the republican committee state that the meeting is open to any person and if that person is not yet a republican, he or she will be shown why this country today needs the republican vote.

Chief of Police Killourey left Friday for Governor's Ballot where he was to be principal witness in a case of the U. S. army vs. Private George St. Peter a deserter. Chief Killourey arrested St. Peter in this city some time ago upon request of army authorities and received notice that he was needed as a witness. During his absence Lieutenant Allan McArthur is acting chief.

Local Elks are planning to hit Norwich Tuesday night of next week to aid the Norwich Elks in making their annual val a success. From all indications a large body of wearers of the antlers will take the trip.

As the result of Governor Marcus H. Holcomb's veto of the bill to provide $1,500,000 for an additional state school grant, the town of Windham will have to shoulder an added expense of $4,150. This amount has been provided by the town and was to be paid back by the state after accounts had been audited.

Miss Ruth Miriam Large and Albert George Bachand, both of Bristol, were married Thursday morning at St. Joseph's church, of that city, by Rev. John E. Clark of Willimantic.

Funeral services for Clarence H. Bowers were held Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the chapel at Mansfield depot, services being conducted by Rev. F. W. Klein. Burial was in the Storrs cemetery. Jay M. Shepard was in charge of the arrangements.

Funeral services for Mrs. John Shepard were held Friday morning at 8:15 o'clock from her late residence at North Coventry. Requiem high mass at St. Mary's church, South Coventry, was sung by Rev. James McGowan, pastor.

As the body was borne into the church Miss Cecelia Day, the organist, sang One Sweetly Solemn Thought, and as the offertory she sang Te Deum, and as a waiting hymn, Face to Face. The bearers were Edward Nevins, Robert Batty, John Purdon and George Tunney. Burial was in the family lot in St. Mary's cemetery, North Coventry.

Mrs. Ora Styles, 69, widow of Alfred Styles, died Friday morning at her home, No. 50 Walnut street. She was born in Voluntown in 1849, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George H. Lamphar and had made Willimantic her home for several years.

Doris H. Rogers, infant daughter of Russell L. and Josephine G. Curran Rogers, died late Thursday night at their home, No. 11 South street. She is survived by her parents.

Fannie Eva Gluskin, 19, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Abraham Gluskin of 20 Center street, died Wednesday night at Harlem hospital, New York city, following an illness of two years. Besides her parents she is survived by two sisters, Annie and Martha Gluskin, and a brother, Reuben Gluskin all of this city. The body is to be brought to Willimantic for burial.

At the First Congregational church Sunday, Rev. Harry S. McCready, pastor, will preach at 10:45 o'clock. Children's sermon, The Shut-up Post; sermon, Only a Lovely Song. Sunday school at 2:45 o'clock. Evening service at 7 o'clock. Subject, Using of Hymns.

First Baptist church, Rev. Arthur D. Carpenter, minister, 10:45, morning worship sermon by the pastor; 12, church school for the study of the Bible; 6, informal social hour in the vestry; 7, evening service in the church auditorium.

At the beginning of the Sunday evening service at the First Congregational church a portrait of Rev. Samuel G. Willard, who was pastor of the church from 1849 until 1885, is to be unveiled with fitting ceremonies. Rev. Mr. Willard's pastorate of 19 years is the longest in the history of the First Congregational church. Of those who heard Rev. Mr. Willard while he was pastor, but few remain, but the church has been reaping the fruit of his ministry during the years past. He was a man whom everybody loved and trusted, a thoughtful preacher and a faithful pastor, and it was greatly through his efforts that the present edifice was built.

The portrait is the gift of Mrs. E. B. Cragin of New York, a daughter of Rev. Mr. Willard, and is a beautiful piece of photographic art.

The ceremony will be of added interest to members of the Congregational church inasmuch as Allen Lincoln is expected to read to the members from his history of Rev. Mr. Willard's life and service. Invitations have been sent to Miss A. G. Willard and Samuel P. Willard of Colchester, daughter and son of Rev. Mr. Willard, and it is expected that they will attend the service. It will be remembered that Rev. Mr. Willard left this city to take up the pastorate of the Congregational church of Colchester.

Further interest in the ceremony is caused by the announcement that Mr. and Mrs. Caswell and Miss Lois Caswell are to give their time and talent to make the evening a success.

Members of Francis S. Long Woman's Relief corps were busy Friday night preparing for the feeding of some 250 hungry delegates who are to attend the republican congressional convention of the Second district in this city today (Saturday).

Seats are being provided for at least 350, it being expected that the number of delegates attending the convention this year will be larger than in previous years, owing to the contest for nomination to the office of congressman.

Four candidates who are to attend the republican congressional convention of the Second district in this city today (Saturday) are expected to be present. They are: Mr. Bugbee of Putnam, Mr. Hazen of Haddam, Mr. Keeney of Somers, and Mr. Freeman of New London.

Everything is set for the trip to the Merrick mills scheduled for today (Saturday) for the American Thread company. The boys up at the New Bedford mills claim that they will wipe out the defeat administered them in this city some few weeks ago by doubling the batting they got at the hands of the local thread makers. After the game the visiting ball players and their rooters will be the guests of the Merrick boys and a good time is assured. Sunday at Recreation Center the Grafton & Knight team will play here. This many carries off the team from the locals in the first contest this season, winning out in the tenth inning. From all accounts it will be a different story this Sunday.

Stanislav Bulda, the month old son of Mary and Andrew Bulda was buried in St. Mary's cemetery Friday. Hourigan Bros. had charge of the funeral arrangements.

Thursday evening a man driving an automobile passed through the town, everywhere he saw a group of men standing. He threw bundles of papers among them. Investigation proved that the papers were collections of socialistic literature of various sorts. Whether they are of a class coming under the head of illegal distribution of improper literature has not been determined yet. Near the corner of Railroad avenue and Main streets Chief of Police John Dolan, saw the planting of a bundle in a group of Polish people. He went to the nearest telephone and notified Norwich police of his facts in the case. Capt. D. J. Twomey of Norwich stationed a man at the upper end of Greenville and the man was held up. They admitted being in Jewett City and said that harmless literature had been distributed. The matter is under investigation.

The committee of the Rock Nook Children's Home extends a cordial invitation to the public, including the children, to come and see the remodeled house this afternoon from 2 to 5.

DISTINGUISHED ARTISTS FOR

MUSIC ASSOCIATION CONCERT
According to the musical critics of Paris, Maurice Maréchal, who is to appear in Slater Hall on the evening of Oct. 4th is indeed a great artist destined for a great future, and doubly deserves the triumph which the public is according him. Miss Sydney Thompson, who will give old ballads and dramatic recitations in costume, has appeared with success in New York theatres. It is said of her that "she is a delight to the eye and the ear, with a charming personality and the ability to make her characters live before you." With a natural endowment of artistic ability supplemented by years of exceptional training Lois Perkins Maréchal has achieved sufficient distinction in power of dramatic interpretation to have been publicly associated with Maurice Yvette Guilbert.

Breed Theatre.

Oliver Thomas heads the double feature bill at the Breed today in "Darling Mine." This is a pleasing comedy drama with plenty of heart, interest and whimsical touches of humor. It is a story of Ireland and America and has many exceedingly beautiful scenes of the "old sod." Walter McGrail and Barney Sherry head the all star supporting cast. For the second feature, "The House of the Living Dead," which is heralded as the laughing feature of the year. The Fatha News completes this bill. Four shows today, at 1:30, 3, 6:15 and 8:15.

Coming to the Breed Sunday, Monday and Tuesday.

Robert Louis Stevenson's powerful story, "Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde," has been translated to the screen with John Barrymore in the leading role and will be shown at the Breed theatre Sunday, Monday and Tuesday. This is declared to be one of the most remarkable pictures ever filmed, and the performance of Mr. Barrymore is claimed to be a worthy companion to that of Richard Mansfield, who appeared in the same part in the stage version of the story.

The plot, as is well known, has as its central figure a young London physician, Dr. Jekyll, who, in his private life, is exceeded only by his all-absorbing interest in his chosen profession and his scientific investigations. He is in love with an innocent, beautiful girl, Millicent Carey. Her father, Sir George Carew, is a famous man about town. Dr. Jekyll is persuaded by Sir George to accompany him to a new music hall. From this experience he is expected to emerge with a liquid that will separate the good and evil in a man into two distinct bodies. He evolves such a drug, administers it to himself and becomes, not only Jekyll, the doctor-philanthropist, but also Hyde, a misshapen, evil brute. Gradually the Hyde side of his character overmasters Jekyll and, after a strangely dramatic scene, he succumbs. Only after his death is the dual character of his personality revealed.

Martha Mansfield in Mr. Barrymore's leading woman, and the picture, which is a Paramount Aircraft, was directed by John S. Robertson.

As an added attraction the Breed will show the K. of G. Pilgrimage with its first and exclusive poems of Pope Benedict XV. Other pictures on the bill include Pearl White in "The Black Secret," and a Rainbow comedy titled "Mixed Drinks."

Strand Today.

This is the final chance to see the big show arranged Thursday, Friday and Saturday. The wonder picture, the Superhuman, with its many thrills and hair-raising adventures will be shown today for the last time. Charles Marvel the greatest restoration of his age, who has made a hit with his novelty act, Jay and Jackson, the pair of nut comedians, with their snappy sayings, get along fine to the finish. Burns and Roar Sisters clever with the feat, and plenty of comedy mixed make it worth while. Oden and Luken, the black face comedians, with their jokes and dances stopped the show. This attraction will show is very good and all who saw it were satisfied to their utmost.

Strand Sunday.

Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, Robert Warwick, the best liked screen star, will be shown in his latest picture, entitled, The Man in the Hat, the great picture taken from the stage play of the same name. Fish and Wells will open the show with a penny act and lot of hokum. Noted Tim Tonic wonder act, introducing Dr. Anderson's magic kettle, fries ice cream, fries fried eggs. The most marvelous discovery of the age. All women should see this act and learn how to preserve fried eggs. Charles Rife & Co. presents his most laughable comedy skit entitled, He Auto Fix It. Burke and Lee, the nifty nimble comedians sleepers, with bright line of talk and songs. The Gaumont Weekly will close the show.

RICHMOND

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Smith made a trip to Providence Wednesday. The frosts hit in many places and did quite a lot of damage, taking corn and other garden stuff not matured. Kingston fair was largely attended by local people.

Miss Lucy Taylor of Hope Valley is working for T. DeCoppet for a while. Walter Gardner of Exeter was baptized Sunday.
